ARMISTICE DAY KEEPING URGED

President's Proclamation
Asks Observance

Calls on People to Express Gratitude for Peace

Suggests School Exercises
and Flag Display

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2. (P)—By proclamation, President Coolidge today set aside the 11th inst. as Armistice Day, calling upon the people to express their gratitude for peace and their desire for a continuance of friendly relations with other nations.

The proclamation, issued under a Departmental resolution, suggests the display of the American emblem and other exercises in schools and homes.

URGES PRAYER FOR PEACE

On the 11th of November, marked the cessation of the destructive, sanguinary, and wasteful war in human annals.

It is fitting that the remembrance of this day be commemorated with prayer and devotion, and by expression of good-will and friendly relations between nations; and by concurrent resolutions of the Senate and the House of Representatives in 1926, the President is requested to issue a proclamation for the observance of Armistice Day.

ORDERS FLAGS RAISED

Therefore, I, Calvin Coolidge, President of the United States, in pursuance of said concurrent resolutions, hereby order that the flag of the United States be displayed on government buildings on November 11, 1927, and do invite the people of the United States to observe the day in schools and churches, and in suitable places with appropriate ceremonies, giving expression to the attitude that peace exists and that sincere desire that such amicable relations with all other peoples be maintained.

In witness whereof, I have here-unto set my hand and caused to be signed the great seal of the United States at the city of Washington,
the second day of November, in the second year of the second thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven, and of the independence of the United States the one hundred and fifty second.

EXPERTS STUDY BONE MYSTERY

Strands of Hair and Paper
Only Clues Uncovered

El Cerrito Skeleton May be of Middle-Aged Man

Flesh Burned Away With Acid or Blow Torch

EL CERRITO, Nov. 2. (P)—Two strands of blonde hair and a copy of the Seattle Times dated October 5, 1927, were the only clues uncovered
by officials investigating discovery of the charred human bones found near here yesterday. Both the paper and the hair were in the grave
beneath the bones.

Crime experts tonight declared that the bones seem to be those of a middle-aged man, and said the flesh had been burned away either with acid or a blow torch.

SKULL FRACTURED

The bones were found by Henry Marco of Portland, Ore., who is at visiting a sister, Mrs. John Curtis.
Almost a complete skeleton was assembled. The skull is fractured, but whether the fracture occurred before or after death remains to be determined.

The proprietor of a service station
within sight of the shallow grave
where the bones were found told police he had seen an automobile parked near the grave Friday night. A deputty coroner estimated that the body had been buried about a month, but detectives surmised that whoever buried the bones might have returned to learn whether they had been discovered. One theory advanced by police is that the victim might have been murdered elsewhere, and brought here for burial.

CLEWS GIVEN TO EXPERT

All clues were turned over to E. O.
Hartich, Berkeley, criminologist, and police hope that by tomorrow he will have determined definitely whether the bones are those of a small man, a woman or a youth. All three classifications were made by investigators,
although examination of the jawbone,
vertebrae and teeth are said to support the statement that the skeleton is that of a man.

RED OBEY COLORADO'S PICKET LAW

Officials Keep Watch and Violation of Order May Bring Out State Troops

DENVER, Nov. 2. (P)—No pickets were on duty in the Southern Colorado coal fields today, although at meetings of strikers held in Walsen-burg last night it was voted that picketing be resumed. State officials kept a watchful eye on the situation and it has been indicated by Gov. Adams that if pickets are placed at the coal mines in defiance of his recent request that the Colorado National Guard will be sent to the mines.

There was a large increase in the number of miners who reported for work in the Southern Colorado coal mines today. Operators expressed the belief that the working forces would soon be back to normal if there is no more picketing.

I. W. W. leaders issued an official bulletin from their headquarters in Walsenburg expressing satisfaction with the situation and declaring that
"we expect to carry on in the usual way, delegating ourselves to regular organization work." The statement made no mention of picketing. Frank Orr, publicity director of the organization, said that "we expect to continue to picket."

The Northern Colorado coal fields still are paralyzed by the strike and only one mine, the Hays, is operating. The situation in Weld county, in the northern part of the state, is quiet. The situation also seems improving as to the number of men working.

Whatever mistake was made when P. J. Thompson was detained on an malice, a jury in Judge Fleming's

it returned a verdict exonerating P.

sued for $25,000 damages for swearing out the complaint.

"I thought he was crazy," Fancher said. "His wife told me he was and that she was afraid he would injure her. I signed the complaint because she was afraid to."

Thompson was released upon a hearing on the insanity complaint.

SAVANT JUST 'REGULAR GUY'

Hendrik Van Loon Squashes Story of Companionate
Marriage to Francis Goodrich

NEW YORK, Nov. 2. (Exclusive)—Hendrik Willem Van Loon, eminent synecopator of history, today sat upon the "fanciful story" that his newly revealed marriage to Francis Goodrich, well-known actress, was one of those marital experiments in separate residences for husband and wife.

In light of the fact that Mr. Van Loon is six feet two inches tall, approximately 230 pounds in weight, and muscularly active, it might as well be admitted that the idea, lovely as it seems, was utterly squashed.

He sat down upon the story with the same graceful vigor with which he has descended upon sacred cows in history.

BLAME LANDLORD

To the contrary, Mr. Van Loon discussed the story of his marriage to Mrs. Goodrich, whom he married in October, N. Y., "some time in October," are living apart solely because of the indestructible qualities of the leases they signed for their separate apartments before their marriage, and their decision to landlord to change his nature or his lease, he said, even for the oldest story of mankind.

Mr. Van Loon has a two-room suite at 7 East Ninth street. Miss Goodrich has the same size at 324 East Fifty-seventh street. Neither is large enough for both. So, obviously enough, they decided to apart until their leases expired or until they could sublease their individual apartments.

He entered into no fool marriage pact," the author declared, somewhat emphatically. "I am a single person and was married in sensible fashion. All these reports about artistic temperaments and such, and experiments and no sharing of home, money and property, is so much somuch twaddle."

HAS BOOKS TO WRITE

Besides, he added, he has two books to write. He is even now behind the publisher's schedule.

Miss Goodrich, too, has work to finish.

"Isn't it a sensible thing," she said, "for us to get this work done before we take over new responsibilities?"

News of his marriage to Miss Goodrich, divorced wife of Robert Ames, actor, also brought forth another disclosure. It is Mr. Van Loon's discussion of the divorce, which was voiced from the time of his marriage, his second wife, known to the public as a Greenwich Village coffee house on West Fourth street called the Main Matter. They were divorced, it was learned, in July.

inflicting the cut.

Small Girl May Die From Plunge

As the result of an exploring expedition through a vacant house, Paddy Duff, 7 years of age, 1217 Clor-dale avenue, was at the point of death at the General Hospital last night.

Paddy and two little girl companions were playing in a house
under construction across the street from her home. They scampered up the partially completed stairs and were jumping across the boards on the third floor when Paddy suddenly lost her footing and fell three stories to the basement.

She received a fractured skull and contusion of the brain. She was removed to the General Hospital and later removed to the General Hospital where little hope was held out for her recovery.

MUNITION PLOT SUSPECT DIES

Humbert, French ex-Senator, Linked With Bolo Pasha

Exonerated of Fraud in American Contracts

Later Lost Action for Libel
Against Poincare

PARIS, Nov. 2. (P)—Charles Humbert, former French Senator, tried and acquitted in connection with the Bolo Pasha case during the World War and exonerated of fraud in American war contracts in 1919, died here today.

Humbert was one of the most prominent figures in the military preparation campaign in France
prevented to the war.
He kept up appeals with the French Senate and in the newspapers, his slogan being: "More cannon, more ammunition."

He was sent to the United States
late in 1914 to purchase war materials for the French army, but was recalled after a few months' activities.

TRIED FOR TREASON

In 1918, he was tried on a charge of having intelligence with the enemy, the charge growing out of an assorted relations with Bolo Pasha,
the notorious leader of the "defeat-ist" movement in France, who was sentenced to death and shot at Vincennes, April 17, 1918.

Humbert, one of the leading figures in the so-called Bonnet Rouge defeatist conspiracy, went on trial in 1918, but was acquitted. He had been arrested five days after the conviction of Bolo Pasha. The specific charge against him was that he and several other men purchased the newspaper Le Journal with money for the purpose of conducting a defeatist propaganda. The court-martial voted four to three in favor of Humbert.

EXONERATED BY BECKER

In 1919 former Dep. Atty-Gen.
Becker of New York, who investigated the original charges for the French government, exonerated
Humbert of fraud in the United States in connection with contracts entered into five years previously when Humbert had gone there to buy war supplies for France.

Becker, who was a libel against M. Poincare, now Premier, the charge growing out of Humbert's trial in the Bolo Pasha case.
The French Attorney-General, however, ruled that there was no ground for prosecution for defamation involvement.

In recent years Humbert had dropped out of political life.

Sure of Himself Now!

So Clean Inside, No Fear of Perspiration Offense,
However Over-Heated

Once a person realizes the wonderful properties in cascara, no other laxative
in the market would ever be considered.
It's no trick to "clean out the bowels."
Dozens of things will do that. But a little natural cascara purifies the system clear through. Cascara even the pores of your skin. Renders perspiration as in-offensive as so much dew! The old-fashioned way was "sals." They got action, but they take the mucous membranes along with the waste matter!
Mineral oils are greasy, but they leave the bowels with a film of poisons for the blood to carry off through the pores.
But when you cascade the system, you get rid of all the poisons by normal muscular action of the bowels.

If you have the habit of taking medicine for constipation, or even for automatization, stop it. For a candy cascara is a delightful form in which to take cascara; children love them, and the taste temple most grown-ups to have "more."
And what a comfort to have you are in that clean, wholesome condition that does away with any need of deodorant, even in warmest weather! Try a cascara tonight—see how you feel next day, and for days after! With the skin fresh and fragrant. All druggists, 10c and 25c.

that I ever gave to laxatives. In those days my perspiration was so acid,
it used to rot my clothes. Then a doctor tipped me off to those wonderful little sweeteners—"

SHIPPING BOARD HEARS DEMAND

Oregon Senators Cite Coast Stand on Lines Sale

Five-Year Guarantee Basis Urged by Speakers

Los Angeles Chamber Wire Figures in Proceedings

BY ROBERT B. ARMSTRONG

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2. (Exclusive)—Senator McNary and Senator of Oregon told the members of the Shipping Board that the west coast shipping interests demand immediate action on the sale of the three government-owned lines now operating on the Pacific Ocean from Seattle, Portland and San Francisco and that no one there will be satisfied until the ships are offered to private bidders on a basis of a five-year guarantee.

The board members, who were in session at the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, headed by Chairman O'Connor. The others present were Myers, Hill, Teller and Smith. Commissioner Benson is on his way to the west coast and Hawaii. Commissioner Plummer could not attend on account of sickness.

Chairman O'Connor stated that instead of a meeting of the subcommittee, it was decided that all the members in the city should attend the hearing and listen to the protests from the Senators from Oregon. Chairman O'Connor outlined the administration plan for sale of the ships with a five-year guarantee, and was followed by Commissioners Hill and Teller, who insisted that a ten-year limit is necessary.

CHAMBER WIRE RECEIVED

Just as the meeting was getting under way a telegram protesting the sale of the three west-coast ships except on a five-year guarantee was received from the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce. Copies of the telegram were given to all the members of the board by Chairman O'Connor.

Based on its action on the expressed belief that the best interests of shipping on the Pacific Coast will be served by privately owned and operated steamship lines as against government ownership and operation, the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce in its wire reiterates its earlier stand in favor of the five-year guarantee in such sales as opposed to the ten-year guarantee.

Senator McNary and Senator Stiever divided the time in declaring that the board was wasting time and demanding in no uncertain terms that immediate and satisfactory action be taken to obtain bids from private buyers on the basis of five years only as had been the practice in all former government ship sales by the board.

SENATORS STAND Both Senators said plainly that if a ten-year program is insisted on all either in new legislation, additional ships or funds will be denied the board if they continue to fail to function as they provided by the shipping laws. They both asserted that the ten-year proposal is without merit and indicated that the members of the board who acted in favor of such a plan were plainly negligent and dilatory in keeping their oath of office.

When the Senators finished their remarks all the members of the board favor a ten-year guarantee seemed very much disappointed at the remarks of the men in the Senate to whom they must look for further appropriations and amended laws. Finally it was suggested that immediate action should be taken but members of the board insisted that the whole matter go over until further reports can be obtained from the reports of the fleet corporation now charged with the operation of the ships.

ALIBI AIMS SEEN This is regarded as an alibi and a stall for further time as the technical experts of the fleet corporation already had made a report to an earlier meeting of the Shipping Board where in they recommended that the three west coast lines be sold as has been the custom in the past—on the basis of only a five-year guarantee.

Senator Shortridge of California, who arrived earlier in the day from California, did not appear before the board, and may not have had time to be at the meeting, but it is understood he will appear before Chairman O'Connor of the Shipping Board and also confer with President Coolidge to back up the position of the Los Angeles and San Francisco chambers of commerce. Commissioner Teller is a bit embarrassed in that not a single shipping or business interest in his State has supported his plea for a ten-year guarantee. It is held that he should know by this time from the scores of protests from all representatives of business and transportation in the three coast States that no ten-year proposal will bring a single acceptable bid from any responsible bidder.

SMALL FAILS TO LAND AS CHIEF

Blackfeet Indians Decline to Honor Governor Who Holds Sioux Title

SPRINGFIELD (Ill.) Nov. 2. (P)—Gov. Small never will be two times big chief if he waits for it from the Blackfeet.

Here today on their tour the Blackfeet Indians, led by Chief Two Guns White Wolf, whose profile adorns the Buffalo nickel, got ready to induct the Governor into their tribe when they learned he already was a chief of the Sioux. They stopped their preparations, refusing to make a Sioux chief a chief of Blackfeet.

The Indians visited the tomb of Abraham Lincoln today, paying him a tribute as the "great father of mercy." After visiting the tomb the Blackfeet called on the Governor and adopted him as a "brave" instead of a chief, and gave him the name Swift Bird.

REDWOOD CITY, Nov. 2. (Exclusive)—San Mateo county's efforts to ferret out a host of suspected unpaid tax bills reached a climax today when a group of taxpayers stormed the courthouse, waving recently mailed bills and demanding "how come." Some of the asserted unpaid taxes date back to the days when the West was wild. Among them is the estate of the late James L. Flood, for which Mrs. Constance May Gavin of Los Angeles is seeking a share on the contention that Flood was her father.

A sneaking suspicion that a flock of revenue was laying around the county if it could be collected led recently to the employment of Charles E. Skidmore as a special snooper among the files and records. The efficiency of Skidmore's work simply was demonstrated today and county officials expect it is only the beginning.

The bills that originally amounted to $4 and $5 on a small parcel of land developed under Skidmore's keen eye into unpaid assessments which interest has increased to $200 and $250. Larger bills are in proportion.

The taxpayers against the Flood estate, which consists of 1200 acres in Menlo Park, is that a bill levied in 1861 never was paid.

PRESIDENT LAYS WARS TO PUBLIC

Governments Rushed Into Fight by Citizens' Clamor, Church Council Hears

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2. (P)—President Coolidge today told a delegation of the Federal Council of Churches that by proper direction of public opinion peaceful methods of negotiations between countries will replace war.

The delegation called to present a memorial signed by numerous prominent churchmen asking that the United States co-operate with France in bringing fulfillment of the proposal of Foreign Minister Briand that France and the United States renounce war as an instrument of national policies.

Mr. Coolidge was quoted by members of the delegation as having said that governments never want to go to war but that they were usually forced into it by public opinion. Such organizations as the council, he believed, could direct public opinion into the ways of peace and goodwill between nations.

AMERICANS AT PEAK OF LIVING

Standards Now Held Highest World Ever Knew

Average Income Rises $600 in Past Five Years

Cost of Necessities Drops in Same Period

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2. (P)—The highest standard of living ever attained in the history of the world was reached last year by the American people, the Bureau of Internal Revenue said today in a report showing that the 117,000,000 persons in the United States had a total income in 1926 of nearly $90,000,000,000, an increase of approximately $27,000,000,000—more than 43 per cent—in the five years since 1921.

The bureau's figures revealed an increase in the nation's income for each year since 1921, when a total of $62,000,000,000 was recorded. It increased $3,000,000,000 in 1922; $7,000,000,000 in 1923; and $8,000,000,000 in 1924, when a total of $89,000,000,000 was earned. The same increase holds true for the average per-capita income of persons gainfully occupied, which in 1921 was $1637, compared with $2210 in 1926.

"This great increase in income is not the result of an increase in the price level," the bureau said, "for the average price of consumed goods was actually slightly less in 1926 than in 1921."

At Pompeii a wooden chest, in good state of preservation, was found, it being the first wooden article to be unearthed there.

TRAP SPRUNG ON TRAPSHOOTER

Wife Seeking Divorce Says All Sportsmen Are Bums and Not Square Shooters as Husbands, Waving Stolen Club Towel to Prove Point

WHITE PLAINS (N. Y.) Nov. 2. (Exclusive)—"Trapshooters are all alike—no good as husbands."

Mrs. Ruth Aggar, Westchester matron, nearly wrecked her suit for separation in Supreme Court here today while trying to prove that contention. She is suing Frank L. Aggar, member of the New York Athletic Club, ardent sportsman and a former champion at the traps.

From beneath her coat, Mrs. Aggar suddenly drew a large Turkish towel and flourished it in the face of Lee P. Davis, her husband's attorney.

"I suppose you trapshooters will all hang together," she cried, "but I want you to know that my husband used this towel from your bathroom."

Justice Joseph Morechauser rapped in order. Davis explained with belated objections.

Mrs. Aggar finally dropped the towel and told how her husband was cruel to her. She charged Aggar used some of his high-powered motor cars to escort young ladies to roadhouses and that he had a jolly-holly disposition.

"At one party," she said, "he was so two-faced that he actually smiled at me during a dinner party, even while he was kicking me violently beneath the table and calling me derogatory names in a voice too low for our guests to hear."

Her attorney, Bernard Bandler, requested other incidents.

"If I should say my husband ever did one kind thing for me," Mrs. Aggar swore, "I would be committing perjury."

Giants in Line to Put Tyrus on Pay Roll

NEW YORK, Nov. 2. (P)—The possibility that Ty Cobb would be seen in the uniform of the New York Giants next season appeared today with the announcement of the "Georgia Peach" that details retirement from the national pastime would await further offers.

Although John McGraw, manager of the Giants, a number of other club officials were out of the city, the announcement is that Cobb's contract with Philadelphia would not be renewed for 1928 created considerable interest.

Baseball men said that McGraw undoubtedly was "interested" in Cobb who played in 139 games last season and batted around .350, despite a swelling up of the legs that have carried him through twenty-three big-league campaigns.

COBB'S CONTRACT TOO MUCH FOR MACK

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 2. (P)—Ty Cobb will not be with the Philadelphia Athletics next year. As soon as a return is received on him from an American League club, he will be free to negotiate with any baseball club whose offer for his services next year looks tempting.

American Loop Moguls Name New Prexy

CHICAGO, Nov. 2. (P)—Ernest S. Barnard of Cleveland today was elected president of the American League, filling the office of Ban Johnson vacated when the former czar of organized baseball resigned after serving the league he organized for twenty-seven years.

The American League club owners unanimously chose Barnard, former president of the Cleveland Indians, for a term of three years. Although the salary figure was not made public, it is believed to be approximately $40,000 a year, the same as Johnson was receiving when he decided to retire. Barnard also was made treasurer of the league.

HARRISON SECRETARY
William Harrison, who, for fifteen years acted as private secretary to Johnson, was elected secretary of the league, a newly created position. Harrison's term also is for three years. Previously Johnson held all three positions.

The new American League head, who started his career in sports as a 16-year-old football coach, promised to continue the high ideals of baseball management created by Johnson. He said he always has been in thorough accord with Mr. Johnson's principles and so long as he remains president of the American League there will be no change in this general policy.

Stanford Squad Off for Seattle

HUSKY POINTED FOR CARD GAME

Bagshaw Has Washington at Peak for Big Clash

Outcome Will Have Bearing on Conference Title

Rainy Weather Would Prove Aid to Northerners

BY ED R. HUGHES

STANFORD SPECIAL. EN ROUTE TO SEATTLE, Nov. 2.—The members of the Stanford football team are on the well-known Southern Pacific today, on their way to Seattle to meet the powerful University of Washington aggregation. The game between these two teams Saturday will have a big bearing on conference championships. Stanford has been beaten this year, but the game lost to St. Mary's was not a consequence game. Washington, however, has Washington State as the only strong opponent of the lot.

Washington will find the Stanford team much harder to handle than Whitman, Montana and teams of that class. Washington is pointed for this game, for a win over Stanford would call for many loud cheers in Seattle. They will remember that hectic struggle of two years ago when Washington won, 13 to 6, and followed that by journeying to Berkeley the following Saturday and beating California.

INTERSECTIONAL RIVALRY
Washington takes pride in its fighting teams and they take particular joy in sinking the gall into teams from California. There is sectional pride in these battles and the players usually rise to the occasion and fight their heads off.

The Washington team should be near its peak for this game, for the team has been brought along slowly and the men have been comparatively free from injuries. Stanford is in good shape, for the game with Oregon last Saturday did no damage to the players.

If the boys are lucky enough to strike good weather in Seattle, which is a good deal of a gamble at this time of the year, there should be a football game worth watching. If it should be raining and the game played on a sloppy field, however, Washington would profit more than Stanford, for the boys up there are used to wet fields and accustomed to handling a heavy, slippery football.

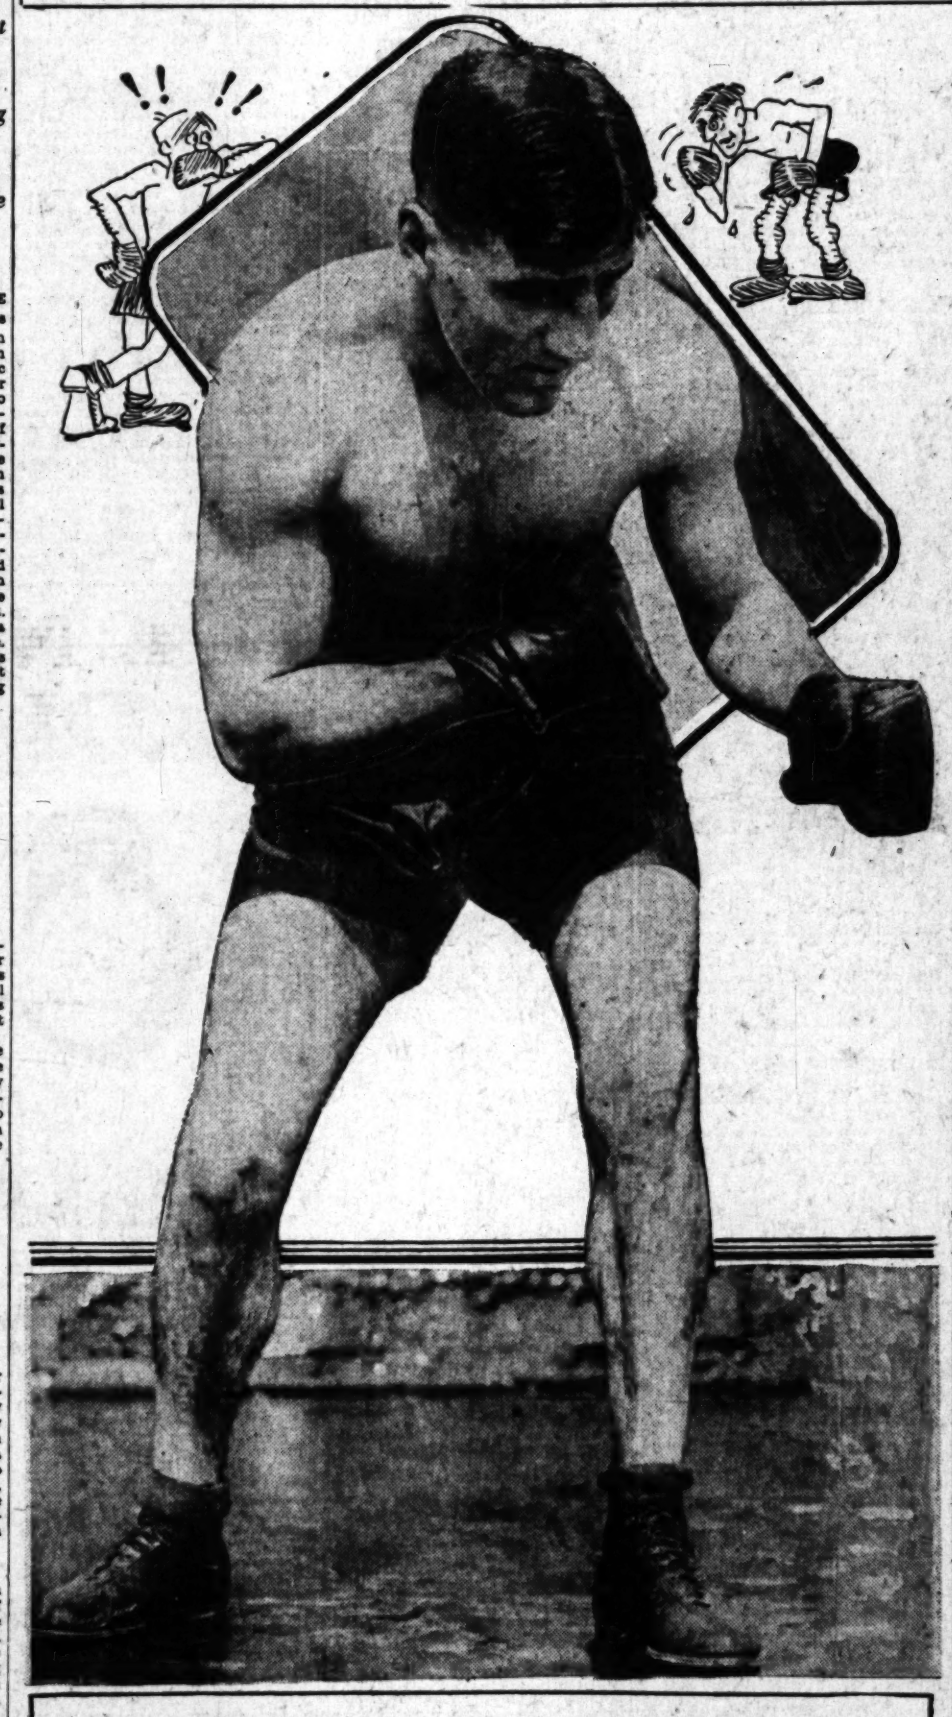

Football players who get their training and play their games in California, play on turf fields, usually under sunny skies and with a dry football. They are taught to catch passes as baseball players catch a baseball, but it is not so easy to pass, catch and kick a wet, heavy, slippery ball. For that reason the weather conditions at Seattle Saturday may cut an important figure in the contest.

DEFEND ON DECEPTION
Stanford depends upon deception and fast and accurate handling of the ball to advance. On the reserve and double reverses, accurate timing and handling of the ball are absolutely necessary and firm footing is needed to let the men cut in sharply to hit the unprotected spot.

PUTS WELTERWEIGHT CROWN AT STAKE TONIGHT

A crouching pose of Joe Dundee, the welter king, who after winning the championship from Pete Latso five months ago is risking it in the ring at Wrigley Field against one of the most feared challengers in the world, the rip-roaring "Wildcat of Nebraska"—Ace Hudkins.

GNARLING WILDCAT FACES NEVER-SAY-DIE ITALIAN

Ace Set to Lift Welter Crown From Joe's Head in Championship Fight at Wrigley Field

BY PAUL LOWRY

Ace Hudkins gets his first crack at a world's championship at Wrigley Field tonight, and he is ready.

The blond-thatched youngster who came to California from Nebraska with holes in his shoes and a hungry look in his face three years ago, stands on the threshold of his greatest triumph.

If he lifts the crown from the brow of Joe Dundee, the welter king, he will see his dream come true. It will be a dream with a dollar ring to it. Having battled his way from nothing to prominence, he will see his dream of a $25,000 prize.

Then he can retire and live in ease and comfort the remainder of his life.

Of course there are several ifs in this dream of the "Nebraska Wildcat."

One of the biggest ifs is Dundee, the indomitable, never-say-die Italian.

He won his title just five months ago from Pete Latso, the champion of the world, and he is not giving it up for the asking.

Dundee is reported to be receiving a fancy guarantee of $25,000 to meet Hudkins, and there is no reason to suspect he won't want to keep the coach, John W. Wilce.

STUDENTS SUPPORT DR. WILCE
Ohio State Governing Body Will Get Behind Coach and Team

COLUMBUS (O.) Nov. 2. (P)—The student senate, governing body of Ohio State University men students, today unanimously adopted a resolution declaring it is "100 per cent back of the football team, the coaching staff and the athletic department."

The action of the student body was coincident with statements issued earlier by J. L. Morrill, national alumni secretary and J. B. Norholt, past president, taking strong issue with action of Toledo alumni, approving a meeting last night a resolution advocating retirement of the football coach, John W. Wilce.

BRUIN FORWARDS TO HAVE BIG WEIGHT ADVANTAGE SATURDAY OVER POMONA SAGEHENS' LINE

BY BRAVEN DYER

If it's true that football games are won in the line, then Bill Spaulding's U.C.L.A. Bruins can begin to count their first Southern Conference championship.

The Bruins meet Eugene Pomona's Pomona athletes in the Coliseum Saturday and a little mathematical endeavor reveals that the Sagehens will be sadly in need of some beef to throw against the heavy U.C.L.A. forward wall.

Of course, a light, charging line can sometimes outgait a heavier foe, but there's been nothing sluggish about upaiding's meaty forwards this year and the Sagehens are under a terrific handicap in the matter of weight.

With the aid of several expert mathematicians and an up-to-date logarithm book we have arrived at the following figures:

Average weight Pomona line—166 pounds.
Average weight Bruin line—181 pounds.

HAGEN AND ARMOUR MEET IN P.G.A. CHAMPIONSHIP

CEDAR CREST COUNTRY CLUB (Dallas, Tex.) Nov. 2. (P)—America's two reigning golf champions, Walter Hagen and Tommy Armour, stroked their way past further obstacles today for a third-round match in which they will battle each other tomorrow on the pathway leading to the championship of the Professional Golfers' Association.

The two stars had little difficulty in today's matches. Hagen made a walk-away of his match with Anthony Mancos of New York, to win, 11 and 10, while Armour defeated Tom Harmon of Tonkers, N. Y., 7 and 6.

Other stars who gained the quarter-finals today found rough going, and one outstanding favorite, Harry Cooper of Los Angeles, was eliminated by Al Espinosa of Chicago. Cooper, a former Dallas boy, fell, 5 and 4.

Morte Dutra of Tacoma, Wash., Gene Sarazen of New York, Joe Turnesa of New York, Francis Gallett of Washington, W. L. and John Golden of Patterson, N. J., entered the quarter-finals with Hagen, Armour and Espinosa.

Dutra was carried to the last green to down Charles Guset of Hollywood, 2 up, and Joe Turnesa trailed all day to win, 1 up, on the thirty-sixth hole from Willie Klein of East Williston, N. Y. Gallett beat Ralph Beach, Bethesda, Md., 2 up, on the last green, and Golden was carried to the thirty-seventh green to down Harold Long of Raleigh, N. C. Sarazen led most of the way to eliminate Ed Dudley, Van Nuys, Cal., 4 and 3.

Either Hagen or Armour will be eliminated tomorrow and there are other favorites who must fall by the

GOOD AS A RINGSIDE SEAT

When Joe Dundee steps into the ring at Wrigley Field tonight to defend his welterweight title against Ace Hudkins the eyes of the sporting world will be on the scrap. Wrigley Field can't accommodate all the world, but the world can have a word picture of the goings on that will be next best to a ringside seat. The battle will be re-fought in The Times by an expert observer who will spread abroad the veriest detail. Paul Lowry, whose vivid descriptions of ring bouts leave little to the imagination, will take tomorrow's fight and his revelations will make tomorrow's Times the best buy fight fans have had a chance to get in on since the Grand Canyon was dug.

Paddock Will Make Indoor Appearance

NEW YORK, Nov. 2. (AP)—Charles Paddock, joint holder of the world's record for the 100-yard dash and accepted holder of the 220-yard dash record, will make his first indoor appearance in competition since 1920, when he came to New York this winter for several weeks.

PAUL LOWERY

NIGHT in recent California history has brought some cross-fire of opinion on the identity of the referee as tonight's championship battle.

Some say George Blake. Others say Duke Kennedy. Also some say Kennedy. Which ever the way the wind blows, the Navy is in the lead now with two games to one.

Blake is the choice of both Dundee and Hudkins and their managers. And of the public. But Commissioner Keith Kistler, manager of the boxing commission says Blake is a manager and therefore he can't referee.

"Let us play the game like men, not like thugs and Wall Street gamblers. Carelessness as to our morals here, adopting every convenient means to win, will throw the greatest game ever invented into disrepute as it was twenty or 30 years ago."

And in spite of what the commissioner says, I suspect George Blake will referee the Dundee-Hudkins fight.

Basketball on Ice, Rickard's Latest Sport

NEW YORK, Nov. 2. (AP)—Basketball on an ice floor is the latest sport to be introduced by officials.

When the promoter's original Celtics basketball team of the American Basketball League opens its season at Madison Square Garden, the 21st inst., against the Philadelphia Warriors they will be playing in all probability, on an ice surface.

One of Rickard's employees has discovered that if imitation glass is laid on the terrace marble base of the floor at Madison Square Garden, and a thin coating of ice placed over that, a surface with the resiliency of rubber is obtained.

Further experiments are being made to determine if the ice will last long enough for a basketball game.

CARDS ON WAY FOR BIG GAME

A was ball and sloppy or loose footing have with that kind of a

However, leave it to Pop Warner. That old war horse has had enough of the street and mud and water, and they have always made a good showing.

Warner will adapt the style of Stanford's game to the condition he finds in Seattle. If conditions are right for the speedster, Stanford may play the old army game and turn on the power.

Washington has one of the forward-pass play that has worked for years, and the Huskies can be relied upon to spring it at least once against Stanford Saturday.

The two sides on the Washington team stand about a yard back of the line and the line just before the ball is snapped on each play. They keep doing it all during the game, but when this pass is to be tried one of the ends does not jump into the line on the other side to make the seventh man on the line.

Agitate the line on New Year's day at Pasadena. I saw Washington make that play and score a touchdown. That was a big score. This time they made Bryan, a big guard, eligible to take the pass and the Huskies completely staked the future.

Pop Warner knows all about the play, so no doubt he warned his players to play about midfield to start them on a march.

It is the play that is called at Seattle on Saturday. Dick Hyland, Wilson Hill and the other fast boys may flash their stuff in the line-up. Hyland, Hoffman, Frentrop, Fleishacker and others who have the weight may have to carry the burden.

Hoffman was a passing line, but from all accounts he looked good against the Oregon Argonauts. If he looks and makes it at Seattle as he can when he is right, he will be a big help to the Cardinals. But if he looks as he did against Alabama he will be a handicap.

Louis Tarsous of Washington is a powerful punter and he also throws pases. He is not the football player his brother Elmer was, for that young giant was a demon in the line-up. Tarsous is a punter and he is not in the line-up in speed. He is not in the line-up in speed.

There is no man on the Washington team the equal of Morley Drury, but there is a good teamwork. The Washington backfield from all accounts, so the Stanford boys will face plenty of power and they will have to go in hard and fast to break up the play.

The squad accompanying Coach Glenn Warner included "Budd" Harber, crack end, who was injured in the Stanford game, October 1, and has not been in the line-up since. Personnel of the team follows:

Ends, Middle, Davidson, Worden, Vincent, Preston, Karder. Tackles, Freeman, Clifford, Sullivan, Heinicke, Kibben, Clifford, O'Quinn, Egan, Samman, Robbery, Macabee, Morley, Centers, McCreery, Cook, Quarterbacks, Murphy, Wilson, Frentrop, Hyland, Sims, Hill, Patchett, Fullback, Hoffman, Joseph, Smalling, Fleishacker.

OWENS TO BAT FOR WOODS AT CULVER

Culver City stadium officials ran into some hard luck yesterday in their proposed Oscar Baker-Joe Woods bout Saturday night as a purification affair for the Baker-Via Alexander

Three weeks ago, when Joe Woods broke a hand in training and was forced to cancel his meeting with the Santa Monica newsboy. However, Jimmy Murray signed Oscar Owens as a substitute and boxing men believe it will be fully as good a fight as the original card.

The Culver City show has been scheduled for Saturday night in order not to interfere with the Hudkins-Dundee fight at Wrigley Field tonight.

ferred for an hour today on Ty's state with the team. When it was over, Mack announced that baseball's colorful outfielder would not be with the Philadelphia Americans any longer.

"Cobb came to me last season under a very heavy contract," said Mack, "and we feel that we are unable to continue the high salary next year. I am very sorry that we will lose him. He is a great player. We liked him on the club; we liked his playing and we would like to keep him."

It was said that Cobb's contract last season called for $60,000 and a bonus.

UNCONDITIONAL RELEASE

Mack further said that the Athletics would ask all the other clubs for waivers, and when they are received Cobb would be given his unconditional release.

Cobb would make no definite statement about retiring from baseball. He remarked, as he said before, that he has been in the game twenty-three years, and is thinking of the time when he would retire.

The famous ball player came to Philadelphia with his wife, Mrs. Cobb. Their most important visitor today was no other than Ty Cobb, Jr., their son, who is a student at Run School, Princeton, N. J., where he plays guard on the football team.

Mr. and Mrs. Cobb will leave for Philadelphia tonight.

Prize for the clean, sportswomanly way in which U.S.C. plays football comes from W. L. (Pat) Stanton, Caltech coach.

He is moved to comment upon the matter after reading Braven's account of the game, in which the old stand with predictions of over a $125,000 gain.

Both figures will weigh in this afternoon. Dundee will weigh 147 lbs., probably coming in about three pounds under that figure.

Hudkins will be at weight, but he has done it only after quite a bit of dieting. The postmaster from Seattle said that he had seen him only after quite a bit of dieting.

Then, too, Dundee cut loose on Tuesday, the last day of his training camp, and but for the fact that he had a bad cold, he would have been in the line-up.

Attell gave Herman Auerbach, the middleweight, quite a shelling at the Olympic ring, and winner Dundee, who has been showing little or nothing in the gym, opened up on Attell, the Hudkins' mouthy old fellow.

CHAMP IS TIGHT

It's not so easy with the braggarts now. Two of the Hudkins boys have some slight misgivings.

But the Wildcat never backed up for anybody. Rudy Goldstein all but knocked Ace out in New York, and what they lack in speed they make up in power and fighting spirit.

Pass the word . . . skin irritation from hydrolysis is no longer necessary in shaving!

A new shaving cream is freeing men at last from old-style smarting, irritating shaves. Read how science has controlled hydrolysis and produced a more efficient lather that is soothing, actually beneficial to the skin.

Now you can come to breakfast with a face that is soothed and refreshed.

For science has learned to control hydrolysis. Hydrolysis is the name given by chemists to the process by which free alkali is released when water is added to soap. All soap—and this means shaving soaps too—is made with caustic soda or caustic potash (lye). While combined with other ingredients this lye-constituent is harmless. But when water is added a part "hydrolyzes," forming free alkali. It is this alkali, so liberated, which, in combination with the action of the soap, causes skin irritation.

But you need not suffer that way any longer.

A notable achievement

When E. R. Squibb & Sons set out to control hydrolysis, there was the to-be-expected chorus "it can't be done." But Squibb chemists thought differently. They had made a really protective dental cream . . . learned to guard the vitamins in cod-liver oil . . . solved other important problems that men thought impossible. Now they set to work determined to create a real shaving cream.

They worked for four years, steadily—they tried formula after formula. They made more than 100 separate experiments, and then one day (a red-letter day for men who shave!) the perfected formula was announced. The amount of free alkali liberated by hydrolysis had been reduced to one part in 325,000!

And in addition the chemists combined with the cream certain ingredients that make the lather not only non-irritating, but actually beneficial to the skin. A shaving cream by Squibb!

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Has Restored the Health of Thousands

Brooklyn, New York.—Mrs. Hermann of 228 Schaeffer St., was a run-down condition and could not do her housework. She could not sleep at night. Her story is an unusual one. Thousands of women find themselves in a similar condition sometimes in their lives. "I saw your advertisement in my letter box," wrote Mrs. Hermann, "and took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I am feeling better." Mrs. Hermann also took Lydia E. Pinkham's Herb Medicine and Lydia E. Pinkham's Pills for Constipation, with good results. She says, "I am recommending your medicines to all I know who have symptoms the same as mine, and others whom I think it will help. You may use my statement as a testimonial, and I will answer any questions sent to me by women who would like information regarding your medicines." There are women in your state perhaps in your town—who have written letters similar to this, telling how much Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has helped them.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2. Smith in a statement replying to similar charges made against Democratic clubhouses by Col. Theodore Roosevelt.

SMOKE SCREEN SEEN

The Governor prefaced his statement with the remark that it must seem strange to the people of the state that "the young of the state" should "devote themselves to an attack upon me and my administration, in the heat of a campaign of nine constitutional amendments, many of which are of grave importance." The statement ended with a return to this subject.

"That is true," he said, "the raids were directed by a police commissioner, who was appointed from my cabinet, by the mayor of the city. But I did not hear you say anything about the raids that were made on Republican clubhouses for open gambling and lest you have no knowledge of it, let me say that in one Republican clubhouse that was raided, police were met with armed resistance, and it is a matter of record in police headquarters that gunmen with police records were in the employ of this Republican club to protect the game."

REVISION OF EXCISE TAX

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2. In a letter to dealer members, C. A. Ryan, general manager, said:

"The retention of this message is of vital importance to the automobile industry. Secretary Mellon advocated perpetual retention of the motor vehicle tax. He urged that the permanent revenue tax become a permanent peace-time tax."

came the latest from New York to stock Daniel Desmond's store.

She creaked and groaned as the full sails bellied to the fresh breeze. Her slim prow split the green combers with her rush.

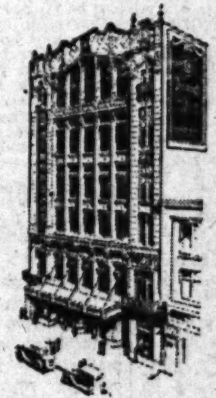

In her hold was a shipment of hats for the store of Daniel Desmond. They came by sea from New York, for only there were the best to be obtained.

His customers were the First Families of Los Angeles. Hardy pioneer folk, but they knew what they wanted. And Daniel Desmond's early success came because he stocked his store with what they wanted.

That single policy has carried Desmond's through sixty-five years of growth with Los Angeles.

Through feast and famine, through good years and bad, we have shared the fortunes of this city.

Always Los Angeles men have known what they wanted. Today they find it at Desmond's, just as they always have, though now the style capitals of the Continent and the Orient are searched for our offerings as thoroughly as those in this country.

The directors also decided to increase the capitalization and to offer stockholders the privilege of buying a part of the new issue at the par value of one new share for every ten now owned.

The outstanding capitalization, it was announced by Andrew M. Chaffey, president, will be increased from $2,000,000 to $4,000,000, and stockholders will be given the privilege of subscribing to $150,000 par value of the $400,000 increase at the par value. The remainder of the new issue will be offered to officers, branch managers and department heads.

Block for which the officers and employees of the bank will be allowed to subscribe will be sold at a price of three times the par value, payable in small monthly installments. Mr. Chaffey stated that the directors desire, through this program, to more closely affiliate its executive with the larger body of stockholders.

By reducing the par value of the stock from $100 many stockholders will receive four new shares for each one now owned. On the basis of the new ownership, the stockholders will then be given the right to subscribe for an additional 10 per cent of their holdings at par. After the split-up, the stock, on the basis of existing quotations, should sell at approximately $150 a share.

In his announcement of these plans, Mr. Chaffey said: "We feel that this action of our board is well timed and will accomplish three primary things. First of all, an attractive distribution of the bank's stockholders is provided, giving them the right to increase their present holdings by 10 per cent at a price very much below the current market. Second, we are enabled to reward our younger men, who are coming along in the institution, as well as to stimulate them to still further efforts in the bank's behalf; and, third, a reduction in the par value of our capital stock places it as an attractive investment within the reach of the smaller investor, who otherwise would not share in our profits."

The California Bank primarily grew out of the consolidation of the Fibertown Savings and the Home Savings Bank in 1908. The California Bank group now includes the National City Bank of Los Angeles, California Security Company, California Corporation, Pumaona Commercial and Savings Bank of Pumaona, and the California National Bank of Beverly Hills with combined resources of more than $150,000,000.

OIL STOCKS LEAD RISE IN LOCAL MART

Calpet, Standard, Union and Rio Grande Advance Sharply; Banks Uneven

Oil stocks on the Los Angeles Stock Exchange yesterday gave the most impressive demonstration of strength that has been shown since the early part of the year. Reports of declining crude production in the Gulf and increased consumption of gasoline, together with improved earnings statements of many companies, are held responsible for the increased buying interest in the stocks.

Standard of California, Union Oil, United States and Rio Grande each advanced more than a point, while the other oil stocks moved up fractionally. Standard rallied 1 1/4 points to a high of $28.4, and closed 1 1/4 points net higher at $28.1. Union gained a point to 45 and Associates reached a peak at 44 1/4, where it closed for a net advance of 1 1/4 points.

Bank of Italy received 1 1/4 points to a low and closed at 207 3/4, while the rights held firm at 5 1/4. Banc California Corporation ranged between 119 1/4 and 119 3/4, and closed at 119 1/4, unchanged from the close on Tuesday. Los Angeles-First National advanced 1/2 point to 96 1/2, and Pacific National Bank and Trust Company of San Francisco advanced 1/2 point to 108 1/2.

Investments of American Money Abroad Growing

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2. (AP)—American money is flowing into foreign investments at a rate never before surpassed. The Commerce Department figured today that October foreign loans amounted to $100,000,000, a new record for any peacetime month, while for the ten months of 1927, including October, the total of foreign securities sold in the United States was $1,818,700,000, which total surpassed the total of $1,818,700,000 set up for the entire year of 1926.

Exceptionally large lendings to Germany accounted for the increase during October. The Free State of Prussia took $30,000,000 in one loan, while American participation in Polish and Brazilian financing accounted for additional large amounts. Among the important German loans by Americans were $10,000,000 to the German Central Bank of Agriculture and $20,000,000 to the Commercial and Trust, the bank of Germany.

School Liens Out California Securities Company will today offer an issue of $150,000 Beverly Hills School District 6 per cent bonds, due serially 1930-1937, and priced to yield 4.20 per cent. "Assessed valuation for 1927 as officially reported amounts to $3,651,295, as against a total bonded debt including this issue of $1,387,000."

PRICES CONFUSE INVESTORS

Question of Value Most Important; Contest Winner Advises Disregard of Quotations

BY EARLE E. CROWE

Confusion between prices and values is responsible for much of the troubles the investors have. The high or low level of quotations as compared with the past is generally the index by which investors govern the purchase or sale of securities, not pausing to consider the question of value separately. Quoted prices are supposed to reflect value, but in actual practice the two are seldom in alignment.

Until the stock market began to point downward the other day, the question before nearly every investor was: Are prices too high to buy? Or, if existing prices represented a large paper profit, the question was: Is it advisable to take profits at these prices?

PRICE UNIMPORTANT

The answer to these questions for the investor, the contest winner advised, is that the price is unimportant. The investor, provided he knows the value of the securities, need not be concerned over the level of prices in comparison with some previous figure. The price to buy or sell is a matter of personal opinion, and the investor should not be influenced by the price of the securities in the market. The investor should be concerned with the value of the securities, and the price should be a secondary consideration.

PARTNERSHIP STRESSED

"On the whole, therefore, our business cannot be considered unwise if he practically disregards the stock market and enters at once with the larger portion of his capital into partnership with the country's most successful business managers. If he is already in partnership with these men, he certainly would not be retreating now because prices are too high. The Du Ponts are good managers and they have just gone into partnership on a substantial basis. The objective for which they all strive is the objective for which they all strive."

Investors, however, are in for the long haul. The question for the investor is: What is the value of the securities? The price is a secondary consideration. The investor should be concerned with the value of the securities, and the price should be a secondary consideration.

BAY CITY EXCHANGE SETS TRADING MARK

OCTOBER VOLUME EXCEEDS IN VALUE RECORD MONTH BY $2,716,132

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 2. (Exclusive)—The value of securities traded in on the San Francisco Stock and Bond Exchange during October reached $2,716,132, breaking all previous monthly records. The October figure is $2,716,132 more than the new record of $94,990,530 established in September of this year. The new record of $2,716,132 easily exceeds October, 1926, in which month the total was $10,729,544. There was also a tremendous share turnover during last month, a total of 1,489,940 shares having been traded in. This is almost comparable to the record of 1,489,940 shares in April of this year. BARNSDALL OIL EARNINGS TOLD

Third-Quarter Profits Exceed Total for Half-Year

Dividends More Than Earned in First Nine Months

Write-off for Depreciation and Depletion Higher

Net profits of the Barnsdall Corporation for the third quarter of this year were greater than combined net earnings in the first two periods, and the aggregate for the nine months, although below a year ago, was more than one and one-half times the results of the first nine months of 1926.

According to R. A. Brownfield, vice president and general manager of the company's California operations, net income for the nine months ended September 30, last, after all charges, including depreciation, depletion and depletion, amounted to $3,948,421.15, as compared with $4,707,401.75 in the corresponding period of 1926, a decrease of $1,758,980.60.

This is equivalent to $2.50 a share on the 1,555,696 shares of Class A and Class B stock outstanding, or at the annual rate of $2.50 a share, against annual dividend requirements of $2.50 a share in the nine months of last year. Net earnings were equal to $4.50 a share on the smaller number of shares outstanding at the close of that period.

Net income of the company after similar charges in the three months ended September 30, last, amounted to $1,700,609.18, as against $1,813,884 in the third quarter of 1926, an increase of $87,224.52. This is also an increase of $3,139.14 over net earnings for the first six months of the current year.

Dividends EARNED

Third-quarter net profits were equivalent to $1.48 a share on the 1,555,696 shares of Class A and Class B stock, or at the annual rate of $1.48 a share, as compared with annual dividend requirements of $1.48 a share. Net profits in the third period of 1926 were equal to $1.40 a share on the smaller number of shares outstanding at the close of that period.

Production GAINS

Total production during the nine months of this year amounted to 7,589,000 barrels, as compared with a total production of 4,211,346 barrels during the corresponding period of last year. This output is after the payment of royalties and partnership accounts. On September 30, last, the company had a total of 2,800,000 barrels of crude oil in storage, while a year ago no oil was on hand except a working stock.

The company's income account for the nine months of 1927 and 1926 follows:

LONDON, Nov. 2. (By Wire)—Deals in securities had scarcely commenced by noon today on account of the holiday yesterday, though the tone was dull also, because of the Socialist successes at the municipal elections and the feeling of uncertainty about the monetary situation. Sir Herbert Hamblyn, deputy chairman of Barclay's Bank, made an optimistic speech on the monetary situation, holding that, while there is no real great improvement, the best indication is the growing realization of the necessity for reorganizations in the heavy industries like iron and steel with a view to more economical working and avoidance of wasteful internal competition. The Financial News has a special article on America's business outlook, emphasizing the falling off in production and the upward turn in the price level.

The company's earnings for the first nine months of 1927 were $400,871, as against $179,463 for the same period of 1926.

TEXAS TRADE TONE BETTER

Dallas Reserve Bank Reports Decided Improvement in State; Others in System Less Optimistic

BY PAUL WILLARD GARETT

(Copyright, 1927, by New York Evening Post, Inc.)

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—The pace of business normally expected at this season of the year fell off last month, according to the Federal Reserve Board's summary of national conditions, but the Dallas Federal Reserve Bank is so impressed by the trend in Texas that it actually says in its November bulletin: "The outlook for the future is encouraging."

Outstanding developments of the past month in the Dallas district are a heavy liquidation of debts at both the banks and mercantile establishments, a rising tide of bank deposits, an increasing volume of public spending, and a swelling flow of funds in search of an investment outlet.

This autumn's gain in wholesale trade has not come up to expectations, but, the Dallas bulletin shrewdly comments, "It should be borne in mind that there is a strong disposition on the part of both consumers and merchants to liquidate indebtedness rather than to make extended purchases of merchandise. This liquidation is reflected in the high rate of business line ahead. The distribution of merchandising at retail reflected a large seasonal increase last month. Collections have been better. Sales of farm implements are up. Everywhere conservatism is the ruling policy of business concerns 'as they show no disposition to depart from the policy of holding commitments to well-defined needs.'"

In the Kansas City Federal reserve district the bank authorities are "considerable unevenness between lines" but declare that the "combined reports of all lines showed recovery most impressive since recent decline."

Drop in Crude Production Stimulates Oils

NEW YORK, Nov. 3. (AP)—The stock market today was one of the most impressive since the recent sharp decline in prices. Some recovery in prices, some recovery in volume, and some recovery in sentiment were the factors that helped to bring about the recovery which followed the decline in prices. The market was generally higher, with the leading averages up 10 to 15 points. The volume was also up, with over 100 million shares traded. The sentiment was more optimistic, with investors looking for a recovery in the market.

In the absence of any important news developments, the rally was generally considered as a correction of the recent sharp decline in prices. The market was generally higher, with the leading averages up 10 to 15 points. The volume was also up, with over 100 million shares traded. The sentiment was more optimistic, with investors looking for a recovery in the market.

NEW YORK CURB STOCKS

NEW YORK, Nov. 3. (AP)—Strength of the oil group, based on declining crude production and increased gasoline consumption, featured trading in the curb market today. Vacuum was one of the leaders, advancing more than a point under the stimulus of yesterday's special and extra dividends. About half the gain was pared away by profit-taking late in the day. Penn-Mex Fuel reached a new peak price for the year and several others advanced a point or more.

Public utilities also received good support on continued evidences of first-class current earnings. Midwest Utilities and American Gas and Electric were in the van of the rise, but Northern States Power "A" followed an opposite trend.

There were evidences of renewed pool activities in several of the recently active issues such as Celanese, Celuloid and Durham Duplex. Some of the latter, with advances of 1 to 2 points or more, American Bond Mills continued its steady march into new territory, reaching 84, compared with a year's low below 40.

Again influenced by the strength of the preferred shares on the stock exchange, Midland Steel sold up to 114 1/2, a net gain of a point.

Soft spots included Grand Stores preferred, Estey Weller "B" Central Acquire Sugar and St. Regis Paper. A rise of 2 points to a new high for the year by Nichols and Shepley was the outstanding feature of the bond divining.

To specific transactions the closing price in the curb market was as follows:

SAFE-SPECULATION

FOR every $2500 invested with us, we place 50 acres of excellent land in escrow as a guarantee that your money shall bring you returns. This land is possible oil land and adjacent to large oil companies' holdings, such as STANDARD-UNION—SHELL—ASSOCIATED—SUPERIOR. The Potter and Esplin well is about to spud in a short distance away. There is a derrick on this property.

IF oil is found, you will receive a 5% royalty from each 50-acre tract on which you place $2500. BRIEFLY, we are borrowing $2500 on each 50-acre tract, which is about 25% of its value, and with drilling activity near by, this land will become more valuable. Your interest will be 5% of the oil from the tract.

WE call this "Safe Speculation." There are only 450 acres or nine 50-acre tracts. AN interview will be convincing.

But Congestion Problem Not Yet Solved

BY PHILIP HEWITT-MYRING

I sometimes think that the most impressive thing about Los Angeles is not the new City Hall, nor the fine wide boulevards, nor the dignified school buildings, but the automatic traffic control system and the obedience which is accorded to it by both motorists and pedestrians.

It is true, of course, that any pedestrian who disobeys the signals in the downtown districts during the rush hours is likely to meet with swift removal from a world where traffic problems do not exist, but this does not explain the patience with which in the less-central portion of the train, a solitary motorist or a group of two or three foot-passengers will wait the signal to proceed, though it is obvious that no danger is to be apprehended from disobedience.

and the citizens of Los Angeles much to be congratulated. I have studied traffic conditions only with a view to preserving a skin) in quite a few of the cities. In New York, the problem is rapidly solving itself, for the congestion at the present rate of increase will be so severe in a few months that no traffic will be able to move at any time, in any part.

lowly. At present, policemen on foot on whistles at irregular intervals and an auto gets sometimes jammed through the jam at an average rate of about one and a half miles an hour.

In Paris, traffic control is not so inefficient as nonexistent; but it has been bred an acrobatic style of policemen who first wave a baton at the bonnet of an incoming auto, and then, when the

He takes no notice, just manages to wriggle into safety from under the front wheels. Fortunately, however, the Paris streets are still wide enough to deal with the traffic they have to contain.

LONDON POLICE EFFICIENT

At times we have the London policeman. I feel a thrill of patriotism whenever I think of them. A ponderous, perhaps, in speech

As he walks, there are none the terror of evil-doers, and the pride of all reputable citizens who regard them in much the same light as they do St. Paul's Cathedral or the Bank of England. He is he who, in Piccadilly Circus, or the whirling Strand, holds up or lets see the streams of traffic, and at the slightest motion of his wrist 1000 automobiles will be stricken lifeless and galvanized to action.

CONGESTION NOT SOLVED
Yet for all the admiration I feel for your traffic signals, I realize that we have not solved the problem of congestion, and will do so still less when Ford has launched his new model, and there are two automobiles
every man in Los Angeles instead of one man to every automobile.
Traffic measures will have to be taken unless your city is to become as

New York.
You will, I think, have to face seriously the problem of street cars.

Kerrick Defendants Win Reversal of Manslaughter Conviction

FIVE GAIN RIGHT TO NEW TRIALS

Appellate Court Says Judge Erred in Instructions

Drinking Held Not Related to Actual Shooting

Dep. Atty.-Gen. Richards Gets Praise of Tribunal

The Appellate Court yesterday reversed the conviction of Sarah Kerrick, Joe Hunt, Henry Isabel, Iris Burns and Anita Davis on charges of manslaughter governing out of the shooting of Tom Kerrick, film cowboy and husband of one of the defendants.

The ruling was based on asserted errors in instructions given to the jury by Superior Judge Hardy during the trial of the accused in their opinion, Justice Thompson, Works and Craig highly praised Dep. Dist. Gen. Richards for his commendable sincerity, "evidencing an appreciation that public officers charged with the administration of the law are, or should be, interested solely in promoting the cause of justice," in not asking for an affirmative of the conviction after a frank discussion of the case in which he admitted the existence of the errors.

UNLAWFUL ACTS CITED
The instructions on which the reversal is based were that the jury should find all of the defendants guilty if they were engaged in doing some unlawful act when Kerrick was shot and killed by one of them, regardless of whether the unlawful act would in its consequence have a natural tendency to destroy life.

"Injustice in law, and yet a moment's reflection demonstrates that such a rule would operate most illegally and unjustly," the opinion reads. "In cases where people are legally found guilty of murder because of their participation in an unlawful act, it must be shown that there is an actual legal relation between the killing and the unlawful act. It must be shown that the killing was an actual part of the perpetration of the unlawful act or of an attempt or purpose to commit it. In other words, death must be due to the unlawful act and death must be the natural and probable outcome of the unlawful act."

NEW TRIAL ALLOWED
The evidence showed, according to the opinion, that the defendants and the deceased were having a party at which liquor was consumed at the time of the shooting. Although the illicit possession and drinking of the liquor was an unlawful act, and the probable basis of Judge Hardy's instructions to the jury, yet it was not a sufficient cause to convict all present, because there was no direct relation between the unlawful act and the actual killing, according to the decision.

Kerrick was shot and died June 23, last. The five defendants were charged with murder and manslaughter. They appealed the case and now have the right to a new trial by virtue of the ruling yesterday.

Jaquins Pleads Guilty to One of Accusations

Edward A. Jaquins, former president of the United States Trust Corporation, yesterday pleaded guilty before Judge Hardy to one of forty-five counts of grand larceny and obtaining money by false pretenses. The charges were preferred against Jaquins in connection with his alleged fraudulent stock deals involving numerous investors and amounted to a range from $1000 to $250,000.

Jaquins filed an application for probation which was continued by Judge Hardy, along with the remaining forty-four counts against him, to the 16th inst., for hearing.

Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Denny and Daughter Barbara

MRS. DENNY ASKS DIVORCE

Actor's Penchant for Plane-riding and Taking His Daughter With Him Blamed

Reginald Denny's irrepressible desire to disport himself aerially, with their small daughter in the plane beside him, was made the basis of a divorce complaint filed against the actor yesterday by his wife, Irene Heisman Denny.

KEEPS ON FLYING
Another cause of anxiety to Mrs. Denny, she says, was her husband's persistence in indulging in flying. For a while he kept a plane of his own, in which he used to take their daughter with him. This caused her so much worry that she finally prevailed upon him to dispose of it, but afterward, she says, she learned that he was visiting flying fields while she was away.

TRouble STARTS
Trouble started, according to Mrs. Denny's complaint, when Denny enlisted in the Royal Air Force shortly after the outbreak of the World War. This Mrs. Denny objected to, she said, not because of any lack of patriotism, but because their daughter Barbara was an infant at that time and she did not feel that she was in condition to be called upon to bear the load of supporting herself and the baby. If Denny had to go to war, she contends, he ought to have selected some less venturesome branch of the service for the sake of her peace of mind.

After the war was over Denny began to "arrive" in the films, and from that period on his treatment of his wife became more careless as his success mounted, she says. He would speak to her disparagingly in the presence of others and would fail to provide her with the amusement and social activities which his position warranted, she says. At the same time he kept their home filled with

AIR ENDURANCE RECORD SOUGHT

Southern Cross to Attempt Sixty-Hour Flight

Test Will Be Made Prior to Australian Hop

Giant Fokker Has Landing Gear Replaced

The giant three-motored Fokker monoplane Southern Cross, scheduled to start early this month on a 6000-mile flight across the Pacific to Australia, will undertake a test flight in which an attempt will be made to stay in the air sixty hours, shattering the present fifty-five-hour endurance record, according to reports at Clover Field, Santa Monica, yesterday.

LEAVES MONDAY
Capt. Kingford-Smith, Australian flying ace, who, backed by the State government of New South Wales, will head a crew of five men in the Australian flight, does not believe that the Southern Cross will be ready to leave Santa Monica Monday.

Mechanics of the Douglas company, Santa Monica airplane builders, are replacing the wheels and landing gear with new equipment designed to sustain the heavy load to be carried. It is estimated at Clover Field that the 1400 gallons of gasoline alone will weigh more than four tons and that when the Southern Cross takes off at Clover Field, it will weigh approximately 12,000 pounds.

The landing gear being removed is the same type Commander Byrd used in his North Pole flight.

NATION TO LEAD
The plane builder, who has flown more than 10,000 miles in transcontinental flights in perfecting the plane which bears his name, considered the unusual hazards of the coming Australian flight, due to its great distance and the weather factor. He would make no predictions as to the outcome of the flight, but he was confident that the plane's capacity for withstanding the terrific strain.

With regard to the advancement of aviation in the United States, Fokker said this country will be the foremost air power within two or three years.

KEEPS ON FLYING
Another cause of anxiety to Mrs. Denny, she says, was her husband's persistence in indulging in flying. For a while he kept a plane of his own, in which he used to take their daughter with him. This caused her so much worry that she finally prevailed upon him to dispose of it, but afterward, she says, she learned that he was visiting flying fields while she was away.

Wives of Store Delegates Laud Clothing Shops

For excellence of window decorations and for quality and price of women's wear the large stores of Los Angeles are unexcelled by those of any city in the West, according to consensus of opinion of the 150 wives of the delegates to the National Retail Merchants' convention, following a shopping tour through the downtown section yesterday. The afternoon was devoted to trips to points of interest in and near Los Angeles.

Expressions of optimism regarding prospects for good business during the coming year were voiced at the morning session at the Jonathan Club by Edward Dale, Jack Mulhall, R. E. Butler, Edward Selby and other executives. A feature of the day's entertainment program was a dance and dinner at the Wilshire Country Club.

MINNESOTA SOCIAL TOMORROW
Former residents of Minnesota will have their monthly reunion at the row evening in Music Arts Hall, 233 South Broadway. Music, dancing and refreshments will comprise the entertainment.

TRAFFIC PLAN HERE PRAISED

Many another city has had to do the same, but the plan here has ended up with the conclusion that the street cars must go. Or, if you feel that such a measure would be too drastic, or even undesirable, the double-deck street car should be considered, for such a vehicle will carry twice as many passengers as the prevailing Los Angeles type without requiring any extra road space.

The system of one-way traffic on some of the downtown streets might be introduced in London, two of our main thoroughfares, the Haymarket and Lower Regent street, are one-way streets, and more will be accorded the same treatment before long. In New York one-way traffic with frontages on such thoroughfares might make an outcry at first, but community considerations take precedence over private interests, and in the end no private interest can suffer from a measure that benefits a city as a whole.

"Bobbed-Hair" WANTED WOMAN TAKEN IN TEXAS

Dallas Holds Trio Accused of Robberies Here

Victims Identify Picture as "Bobbed-Hair Bandit"

Fourteen Hold-ups Charged to Gang in Custody

With one of them believed to be the "bobbed-hair bandit" who terrorized Los Angeles for more than a month this fall, two girls were arrested for Los Angeles authorities in Dallas, Tex., yesterday, accompanied by two men.

Complaining charging four counts of robbery were issued against the two girls and one of the men by Dep. Atty. Gen. Richards. The girls were in custody until an indictment can be obtained from the grand jury today.

The prisoners gave their names as Rosa Rosecrans, Betty Hurst, alias "Bobbed-Hair Bandit," and D. J. Jenkins. Jenkins was not charged with having participated in any of the crimes attributed to the other members of the gang.

IN FATAL RAID
Jenkins is suspected by police of participation in the attempted hold-up of an oil station at Whittier Boulevard and Serrano street October 10, when one of the outlaws was shot and killed by Officer Whiteman.

When a picture of the Hurst woman was shown to the proprietor of the Corner Drug Store at 1450 West street, Barbara street, he identified her as the woman bandit.

With a male companion, held up and robbed him in his place of business October 7, last. The other woman has not as yet been captured.

Miss Hurst was also identified by the Marx, another druggist, whose store is at Third and Main streets, as the woman who robbed him later in the evening of the Barbara street hold-up.

OFFICER ON HAND
Detective Lieutenant Savage of the Los Angeles police, who happened to be in the area on another matter, will bring his men here shortly, he reports.

According to Capt. Curtis and Detective Lieutenant Doyle, who caused the arrest of the party, Jenkins was named in the gang's membership, and he was killed when a witness shot him.

Officer Whiteman, who was wounded in the hold-up of the Uptown theater September 18, last, when he was shot by one of the bandits, is in the hospital.

In the complaints issued yesterday by the District Attorney the women were named as the principals in the hold-up of the Uptown theater September 18, last, when they were shot by one of the bandits.

Miss Hurst and Jenkins, who were held up and robbed in another hold-up at 1201 West Sixth street, October 10, last, obtaining jewelry and cash amounting to $200 and $300, respectively, are being held in the Los Angeles County Jail.

It is which a $500 diamond ring was taken.

TAKING NO CHANCES
Although the three defendants have denied their willingness to waive extradition, steps are being taken to arrest an indictment Monday to cause their immediate return to Los Angeles for trial.

According to Capt. Curtis the two women and Jenkins are believed to have been implicated in at least four robberies in Los Angeles. After they are returned to Los Angeles the complaints probably will be amended to include other robbery charges, it was announced.

WIDENING PLANNED
The City Council has adopted an ordinance announcing the city intention of ordering the laying out and widening of Serrano Boulevard from Santa Monica Boulevard to 10th Boulevard.

SELF-DEFENSE SLAYER'S PLEA

"Red Wagon" Killer's Hopes Rest on Justification

Case Probably Will be Given to Jury This Afternoon

Man's Life Held to Hang on Opening of Car Door

The fate of Thomas A. Christian, charged with murder in connection with the shooting, August 26, last, of Walter E. Galloway, probably will be placed in the hands of a jury this afternoon in Judge Bishop's court. Taking of testimony in the case closed yesterday with Christian taking the witness stand in his own defense. Under examination by attorneys, Christian admitted he shot Galloway but sought to show that he did so because Galloway was a man to be feared. Through Christian's testimony it was evident the defense would place its case with the jury solely on the ground that Christian acted in self-defense.

TRIFLE BREEDS DEATH
Christian is asserted to have shot Galloway in the latter's automobile at the climax of a controversy said to have started between the Christian and Galloway families over the trade between their children of a toy red wagon for a bag of beans. One point that is expected to be weighed heavily by the jury is the question of whether the door of Galloway's automobile was open or shut at the time of the shooting. The defense contends the door was open, thus indicating, according to counsel for Christian, that Galloway was shot in the act of getting out of his car, presumably to attack Christian. The prosecution insists, however, that the door was closed and that Christian was shot without provocation.

STATE DEMANDS LIFE
Arguments to the jury got under way yesterday with the closing of testimony. Dep. Dist. Atty. Dennison, in charge of the prosecution, started the opening plea for the state, and will continue this morning. The state is asking the death penalty. Judge Bishop stated he will charge the jury this afternoon, providing arguments by counsel are completed today.

MISUSE OF MAILS LAID TO WOMAN
Federal Grand Jury Votes Indictment of Mrs. Stagg for Asserted Demands

An indictment charging misuse of the mails was returned yesterday by the federal grand jury against Mrs. Margaret Powell Stagg, asserted perpetrator of a fraud plot in connection with the suicide of Helen St. Clair Evans, pretty 26-year-old Hollywood film girl. Mrs. Stagg will be arraigned in Federal District Court Monday for misuse of the mails.

Mrs. Stagg was arrested last week following an investigation by post-office inspectors who say that she wrote letters to A. T. Daniels, New York City, father of the dead girl, stating that she was in possession of certain facts in connection with the daughter's death. As a reward for information concerning the death, Mrs. Stagg is declared to have demanded her fare to New York City.

The suicide of Helen St. Clair Evans two months ago resulted in a thorough police investigation, following requests by the parents, who expressed doubt that their daughter had ended her own life. An inquest resulted, however, in a verdict of suicide.

BURGLARS GET WRIST WATCH WORTH $3500
Burglars entered the home of Mrs. May Roseman, 1900 Ingraham street, early yesterday and escaped with a platinum wrist watch valued at $3500, she reported to police. Fingerprint experts obtained several specimens of the intruders' marks and are hopeful of catching them.

VERDICT GIVEN IN SANATORIUM SUIT
George Sullenbush won a judgment for $1000 in Judge Burnell's court yesterday because his foot was burned by a hot-water bottle. He had used the Monte Sano Sanatorium, where the accident happened while he was a patient.

YOUTH UNDER ARREST FOR PLUNDERING CABIN
A complaint charging first-degree burglary was issued yesterday by Dep. Dist. Atty. Scheinman against Desmond Dars, 21 years of age, accusing him of plundering a cabin owned by Frank J. Berberich, 10214 South Ardmore avenue, at Malibu Lake. Dars was arrested at the Lincoln Auto Park by Deputy Sheriff Jones and Higgins, who reported they recovered all the plunder.

King was treated at the Hill-street Receiving Hospital for a dislocated and possibly fractured hip and shock. Slippert was not held.

CLEW HUNTED IN BANDIT MURDER

Detectives Search City for Slayer of Druggist

Small Boy, Only Witness to Crime, Repeats Story

Bound Victim Left Dying as Trio Flee in Auto

Despite meager descriptions of the three young bandits who killed A. R. Miles, a druggist, in his store at 2320 West Jefferson street, Tuesday night, when he resisted their attempt to rob him, Chief of Detectives Cling has half a dozen squads of detectives scouring the city for the men. Rooming-houses, hotels and apartment-houses are being searched and every suspicious person, unable to give an account of his movements at the time of the murder, is being brought in and questioned. Eddie Tate, 10 years of age, of 2396 West Thirty-first street, the only witness known to have seen events leading up to the slaying of Miles, told his story over and over again, as the officers sought for some clue which might have been overlooked earlier in the investigation. Eddie says that he noticed the arrival of the three bandits and thought they were up to something. He heard them discussing the possibilities of the store as a likely place for a "touch," he says, and watched as they entered and approached their intended victim.

The boy saw the men follow Miles toward the rear of the store, according to his account, but his vision did not take in what followed. Soon, however, they came out the run and jumped into their machine, the motor of which was left running, and vanished into the night. The drug-gist, fatally wounded and bound hand and foot, was left lying on the floor. He died before he could be given medical attention. An inquest will be conducted at 11 o'clock this morning at the County Morgue by the coroner. Miles leaves his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Miles, 8480 West Fourth street, and a 10-year-old daughter. His wife died five years ago.

With brief cases bulging with orders for millions of dollars worth of Los Angeles-made screen wares, B. F. Schulberg, associate producer, and Walter Wanger, general manager, returned from the East yesterday to the Paramount-Pamous-Lasky Corporation, arrived on the Coast yesterday morning. They were accompanied by Harry Goetz, newly appointed assistant manager of the organization. Mr. Schulberg returned from a trip to the home of the Paramount in New York, where they spent several days at the Chicago convention of sales managers.

It was at this convention that the company's film project for the coming year was outlined. Mr. Schulberg and Mr. Wanger disclosed that the company is entering a period of intensive production that will keep all stages on the huge staff busy for months to come. Mr. Goetz, the new assistant treasurer, came to the west coast studio at the request of Lasky to co-ordinate the finances of the production department with the other departments of the organization.

Joshua Little ON CRITICS

TO BECOME an outstanding critic, you must be exceptionally equipped. You may be ordinary in other ways, but you must have extraordinary assurance and nerve.

The worst critics are those who get gushy where self-interest is concerned—but that class only includes nine-tenths of 'em.

Most "constructive critics" are chaps who never constructed anything notable, and, therefore, know just how it should be done.

The judgment of many critics is affected by cigars, battery, alluring smiles and free tickets. But higher criticism costs from $5 up.

Anyone with a natural bent for cruelty can win reputations as a fearless critic if he has the conceit to present his misanthropy seriously.

The best critics try to be fair and helpful. But though we may honor our gentle instructors we never pay them as we do our pugilists. The smarter assassins of our culture ride the joy with which we pay $1,000,000 to see two big louts mail each other, and see that what we cheer loudest is not the helping hand but the knockout.

They strive so hard for knockouts that they find it impossible to tell the truth without putting "punch" into it. Yes, they are kind to each other. If one dedicates a book to another, the other unblinking writes a review declaring it "the book of the year."

Yes, Palomina, the lowdown on higher criticism is that even it should be spelled "hitz."

A Representative Group
Yes, the Americans are a busy people. Mortimer.

And there is a handful of snappy brokers. Yes, behind those sleek young office boys.

And there is a newspaper man, with the wide-awake camera bound by his side. No, that good-looking mis-forter is a surgeon! Good practice, yes. Let's go over.

What are they looking at? Really, I don't know, but it seems to be a girl in a window, demonstrating fountain pens. Yes, let's go over.

CHUCKLES from LIFE

Reversion to Type

The time had come when the newspapers no longer printed anything except pictures. Radio devices in homes brought not only music, speeches, bedtime stories, and the like, but accompanied them with pictures of the events themselves. A man could sit in his easy chair, tune in on the British Parliament and see the peers debate, as well as hear them. In season he could see the Atlantic City bathing beauty parade. Science indeed had made a wonderful advance. All book publishing companies had gone out of business years before and the magazines only reproduced photographs.

A man who would attract attention nowhere left his modest home and strolled down the street. Immediately a crowd collected and followed him.

"What's up?" asked a stranger.

"That fellow's a curiosity," explained one of the residents of the place. "He's the only man in this part of the country who can read."

Assessment Levy Against Workers Denied

Admission that the employees of the water and power department paid the $15,200.35 judgment found against the members of the 1923 water and power commission for illegal expenditures in the political campaign of that year was obtained yesterday from R. F. Del Valle, president of the commission, and verified by Randolph George, chairman of the board of control of the department's employees' association.

After a four years' fight attorneys for W. W. Mines, suing as a taxpayer, forced the commissioners to return to the public treasury $15,200.35. The judgment was for the payment of the cost of the political campaign of that year, which was found to be illegal. The judgment was obtained by Mines, who had been successful in his attempt to force the commissioners to pay the cost of the campaign.

When the employees paid the note, it was a complete surprise to him and other members of the commission. He had been told that the employees would not pay the note, but he was wrong. The employees paid the note, and the commission was forced to return the money to the public treasury.

ACTION EXPLAINED

The Board of Control of the Employees' Association, Mr. George said, was acting in the interest of the employees. He was not trying to pay the judgment, but he was trying to get the money back from the employees. The employees had paid the note, and the commission was forced to return the money to the public treasury.

OUR HISTORY IN PICTURES 863 Buffalo Bill, Scout of Scouts—Part IV. The Codys in "Bleeding Kansas". by J. CARROLL MANSFIELD

IN THE WINTER OF 1853-54, CONGRESS PASSED AN ACT THROWING KANSAS TERRITORY OPEN TO SETTLEMENT AND THE FOLLOWING SPRING A FLOOD OF OX WAGON IMMIGRANTS POURED INTO THE COUNTRY. BUT THE SETTLERS BROUGHT WITH THEM THE DISPUTE THAT WAS AT THAT TIME THREATENING THE UNION—THE SLAVERY QUESTION. SOON KANSAS HAD BECOME A BATTLEGROUND FOR THE NATIONAL PROBLEM.

THE SETTLERS WERE DIVIDED INTO TWO FACTIONS—THE PRO-SLAVERY MEN, WHO WANTED SLAVERY MADE LEGAL IN THE TERRITORY, AND THOSE WHO WANTED KANSAS TO BE FREE SOIL. THE BITTER DISPUTE LED TO VIOLENCE AND BLOODSHED.

THE CODY FAMILY SUFFERED DURING THOSE TROUBLED TIMES WHEN THE TERRITORY CAME TO BE KNOWN AS "BLEEDING KANSAS." ISAAC CODY, A "FREE-SOILER," FOUND HIMSELF LIVING IN A COMMUNITY WHERE MOST OF HIS NEIGHBORS WERE "PRO-SLAVERY."

AT A MEETING IN A NEARBY SETTLEMENT, HE WAS CALLED UPON TO MAKE A SPEECH AND ANGERED SOME OF HIS HEARERS BY FEARLESSLY EXPRESSING HIS VIEWS. WHILE HE WAS SPEAKING, A ROUGH FARM HAND SPRANG UPON THE PLATFORM AND STABBED HIM TWICE WITH A BOWIE KNIFE.

FEDERAL AIRPORTS URGED

Martin, Plane Designer, Argues Government Should Control Fields in Peace as Well as in War

Federal development, operation and control of airports throughout the United States is the logical solution of one of the many problems of air transportation, according to Glen L. Martin, designer and builder of the Martin bombers now being used by the United States Army and Navy. He is a guest at the Baltimore conference.

"The government should control airports, as it does rivers and harbors, not only as a matter of efficiency and assurance of public convenience, but as a means of national defense," Mr. Martin said.

WHY WAIT FOR WAR?

"In case of war the government would take over all airports and it seems logical that instead of waiting until such an emergency arises it should do so now. This would insure an adequate system of national airports best suited to both commercial and government needs."

Mr. Martin said the Department of Commerce had adopted a policy of leaving the matter of airports up to the municipalities and he is not in politics and does not have the time to fight it.

BIRTHDAY OF VATERLAND

ESPEE TRAIN CELEBRATED FOR CRUISE

Capt. Carrossa to Head Expedition to Sumatra and India for Films

A seven month cruise aboard the German good-will schooner, Vaterland, with a primary object of a series of native motion pictures in Sumatra and India, will be launched from Los Angeles Harbor early next month, it was learned yesterday.

Announcement of the proposed trip was made by Capt. Carrossa, widely known wild-animal trainer and for seven years connected with the Zoo here in this capacity. The expedition will be headed by Capt. Carrossa and will be known as the Carrossa expedition.

Arrangements for the chartering of the Vaterland by Capt. Carrossa were made with Count Von Luckner, German good-will ambassador who brought the ship to the United States, by the old Count Von Luckner, now on a lecture tour of the country, and his wife, who will join the party either at Sumatra or Calcutta.

In chartering the German vessel, Capt. Carrossa arranged to take the entire crew of the schooner as the new film population. In addition, his own party which he estimates will be in the neighborhood of forty persons.

Heart Disease Proves Fatal to Woman Pioneer

Heart disease yesterday proved fatal to Mrs. D. A. Scott, 69 years of age, who in her lifetime had seen Southern California transform from a handful of ranches holding Spanish land grants to millions.

Mrs. Scott, who before her marriage was Mary L. Smith, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. C. P. Smith, 1500 Crumshaw Boulevard. Her parents crossed the continent in 1850 and settled on a land grant which now comprises territory adjoining the city of Banning. Mrs. Scott was born there and was well known to neighbors in this district.

Funeral services will be conducted tomorrow at 10 p.m. from the Little Church of the Flowers at Forest Lawn Memorial Park. Mrs. Scott will be interred at the mausoleum.

Mrs. Scott leaves five daughters, Mrs. E. P. Stewart, Mrs. W. L. Vincent, Mrs. William Teich of Beverly Hills, Mrs. C. P. Smith, Mrs. Walter Duman and Mrs. Philip Miller of Los Angeles.

Pair Sentenced for Enslaving of Young Girl

Arthur Guerrero and Pete Sperito, charged with a statutory offense against a 12-year-old girl whom they were asserted to have forced to lead a life of virtual captivity for the period of three weeks, yesterday were sentenced by Judge Hardy to serve from one to fifty years in San Quentin.

Sentence was imposed after the court had denied the application for probation. In passing on the case, Judge Hardy recommended that they be compelled to serve the maximum term provided by the law.

HOTEL MEN SEEK MORE CONCLAVES

Committee Named to Aid Chamber in Making City Convention Center

The Southern California Hotel Men's Association decided at its regular meeting yesterday at the Baltimore convention center to make an endeavor to obtain more conventions for Los Angeles. Harry Fryman, owner and operator of the Hayward Hotel, was appointed chairman of a committee to co-operate with the Chamber of Commerce and other civic organizations in making Los Angeles the convention center of the Pacific Coast.

The association went on record as disclaiming any connection with the Hotel and Apartment House Association of Los Angeles. Because of the similarity in names, it was pointed out, some confusion as to the identity of the two associations had arisen. A resolution adopted by the Hotel Men's Association points out that it is composed of the hotel men of Southern California, is non-political and has no connection with the activities of the Hotel and Apartment House Association or its officers.

A committee to inform Mayor Cuyler of this association's existence and its purpose was named. The committee will also be charged with the duty of securing a recall petition and the Hotel Men's Association does not want it thought, because of the similarity in names, that it is engaged in politics.

MORE TIME FOR DIVORCE SUIT DENIED

Two Years of Delay Held Ample as Court Sets Case for Trial Today

Three months' more time in which to obtain evidence as to the validity of the marriage of Mrs. Lillian Fraser to Earl Fraser in Australia nineteen years ago, which was sought by the latter's counsel, was denied yesterday by Superior Judge Montgomery and the divorce suit of the wife, whose husband is a concessionaire at Yonico, is slated to begin trial today, almost two years after the suit was filed.

Community property estimated at more than $100,000 by Mrs. Fraser and admitted by Fraser to be $500,000 is the principal stake at issue in the suit. The wife charges her husband with cruelty and attempts to other women.

During arguments which took up most of the day on the case, a continuance, Attorney Francis J. Henny, for the plaintiff, sought to show that Mrs. Fraser married before the age of 18 years, under the Australian laws in 1908 obtained a "divorce absolute," and that a final when no appeal against the decision was made within fourteen days.

Sections of Australian laws were introduced and the court declared that he could not see where the marriage was other than valid, hence ordered the case for trial today.

WATCH YOUR RIGHT OF WAY!

State Warns of Campaign to Cut Down Increasing Number of Crashes at Street Intersections

The Automobile Club of Southern California has just been notified by Frank G. Snook, chief of the State's Division of Motor Vehicles, to warn its members to carefully observe the right-of-way rule, as a campaign of education and enforcement of this rule will be pushed this month.

The California Public Safety Council, one of the many organizations which are active in the campaign to reduce the number of traffic accidents, points out that violation of this rule is the cause of a large proportion of the collisions which occur at street intersections.

Irvin Kaim, general counsel of the Automobile Club, says: "The object of the right-of-way rule is to avoid collisions at street intersections. This object can be attained if one driver yields to the other whenever there is danger of a collision. There should be no politeness of hairs with this rule, as a slight uncertainty may result disastrously. It is the duty of the operator on the left to yield to the operator on the right when the two are approaching the intersection at about the same time. This means at such time that if both proceed a collision will occur."

"Many drivers think they have the right of way because they get into a street intersection a little ahead of a vehicle on the right. This is a misconception of the law. So long as the vehicles approach at about the same time and will collide unless they stop, the driver on the left must yield."

Edison Company Granted Delay

To enable attorneys for the Southern California Edison Company to investigate books of the Shupland Power and Light Bureau to obtain data on which to cross-examine witnesses, Superior Judge Tappan yesterday morning continued the case of the company against the bureau until this morning, when defense testimony will be resumed.

In its efforts as a taxpayer to prove that the Power and Light Bureau has an insufficient surplus to build a $2,500,000 steam-power electric stand-by plant at the harbor as it plans, the plaintiff contends it is short of data in cross-examination of the bureau's witnesses and is handicapped by it.

The court directed that the bureau's figures be available where a specific demand is made by the plaintiff for cross-examination purposes.
